

Welcome to the adult education component of your ECPP Program.

You are being given the opportunity to earn your high school diploma in an effort to improve your employability as well as your earning potential in life.

Brookshire International Academy looks forward to issuing your High School Diploma once it has been earned by you.

In an effort to reduce the amount of work you must do, your previous High School Transcript must be provided to Brookshire immediately.

Failure to provide the transcript will require that you complete all four years worth (24 credits) of High School in order to receive your diploma from Brookshire. You also have the option of completing and passing your GED exam at any local GED testing center, which will then exempt you from further participation requirements in the Brookshire program once the GED results are given to your college and to Brookshire.

You are required to work a minimum of 1 hour each day in an effort to complete that goal. Should you miss any days working in your program, you may be expelled from Brookshire and unable to complete this portion of your Educational Program.

Brookshire Staff is available to assist you between 8AM and Midnight Eastern Standard Time, Monday through Thursday, and 8AM and 8:30PM on Fridays.

You may call (877) 655-7452 ext 2 during those hours, or utilize the live chat found on the ACESP website to receive assistance.

Your website address is <https://acesp.brookshireinternational.academy>. Should you access your curriculum without accessing them through this portal, you will be counted absent. Access to books is always located in your ACESP portal. Your work will not be lost, but the absence will count against you and you could be expelled for failure to follow school attendance policy.

Again, we look forward to having you as a student and seeing the success you are about to achieve.

By accessing our sites and attending our school, you understand that the decision to recognize or accept Brookshire International Academy's high school diploma or any other diploma that you have earned is always the prerogative of the receiving institution in the United States. The decision to recognize or accept a diploma credential is usually based on the admissions requirements of the college or the employment policy of the employer. Brookshire International Academy makes no representation that the ECPP program or this diploma will be recognized or accepted by all colleges or employers or that you will be guaranteed a job after graduating from Brookshire International Academy.
